SGOC President:

- Currently working on BOT Report for upcoming meeting
- SGOC Successfully entered 3 division meetings this past week to help promote getting into classrooms
- Excited to state that the Wellness Center has established its first focus group; will be looking to establish a few student ones as well.

SGOC Vice President: N/A

SGOC Dir. Of PR & Communications:

I've mainly been spending the past two weeks preparing to exit my position. I've been getting work done on ensuring student take the new climate survey, advertising it on our Instagram. I've also been doing some correspondence with the library to see if they're at all interested in assisting with some sort of event to get students to take the survey. They seem to be pretty on-board.

SGOC Dir. Of Finance & Operations:

Rosie stated they have been working on the S&A budget hearing committee formed, going through applications, waiting for committee members to submit their availability, and then will establish a schedule.

SGOC Dir. Of Student Life & Clubs:

Since the last executive council meeting, my primary goal has been the revitalization of club materials and club presence on campus. We are preparing to launch a handbook that will detail the functions and responsibilities of the advisor role later this month. In order to reestablish the presence of Olympic College clubs on campus, we have been working to plan our quarterly club fair. Club Fair will be held Wednesday, February 23. The next Club Congress meeting will be held February 9.

SGOC Office Assistant:

Vy has ordered covid supplies for the office, got in touch with students, and shared open hours for the food pantry.

Program Assistant/SGOC Advisor:

Malikah stated they have been supporting Rosie for the budget hearings. Malikah has met with Brandon Gall, Mychal Walz, and Brittney Johnson to promote the Poulsbo food pantry. Malikah is currently helping plan welcome week.
