Olympic College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, sexual orientation, or age in its programs and activities.
Research Assistance

Our Library Faculty can help you in person or over the phone during library open hours:
- Develop Research Topics
- Refine and Improve Search Strategies
- Use Search Engines Effectively
- Evaluate Sources

Need after hours research assistance? Our Ask A Librarian service offers 24/7/365 access to a college or university librarian who can help you:
- Search for Information
- Choose and Develop a topic
- Develop Search Strategies

Research from Home

Do your research from home using OC Libraries:
- 60 subscription databases
- Over 26,000 online journal subscriptions
- Over 27,000 eBooks
- Subject Guides (recommended books, databases and other resources) in more than 40 subject areas

Research like a pro by using scholarly sources not available through open Web searches:
- Scholarly content is more credible than popular sources.
- Peer-reviewed content is rigorously vetted for accuracy.

Citation Tools

Make sure your work meets academic standards by properly crediting all of your sources. Ask at the library for links to citation builders that can help you avoid the serious offense of plagiarism.

Borrowing

Borrowing privileges at 3 Campus Libraries. Place a hold and have your items delivered to the branch of your choice.

Inter-Library Loan

Get copies of articles not available online or in paper through Olympic College Libraries, delivered straight to your student email.

Books, audiovisual materials, or other materials not available at OC Libraries within 5 to 10 working days sent to the campus of your choice.

Required textbooks and high-demand entertainment books, movies, and music are not available through Inter-Library Loan. Please request high-demand entertainment items through the public library in your area.

Course Reserves

Course reserves are print and electronic materials selected by your faculty available online or at the library check out desk.

Textbook not in at the Book Store yet?

Check with us! Readings may be on electronic reserve, accessible from any internet-connected computer. Textbook may be available for in-library use.

Study Rooms / “Quiet Zones”

Haselwood Library offers 11 group-study rooms for students needing to work with others in team study efforts or seeking quiet study spaces. Rooms are booked on a first-come, first-serve basis on sign-up sheets located outside study rooms on Haselwood Library’s basement level. Sign-up sheets are posted Monday mornings for the upcoming week.

Our libraries provide the only dedicated quiet study space on campus, so please keep noise to a minimum and cell-phones on silent mode while in library open study spaces.

The library is the temple of learning, and learning has liberated more people than all the wars in history. — Carl T. Rowan, U.S. Naval Officer & first African American Secretary of State
