

Global Mixer

On Thursday, October 19, 2017, OC students got to travel around the globe just by staying right on OC campus and attending Global Mixer event. The event, which is a collaboration between the Office of International Education and the Multicultural and Student Programs, occurs quarterly with our goal to educate OC students to acknowledge and respect the cultural differences through fun activities. Students who participated in Global Mixer got to learn about greetings and snacks from around the world by having fun playing quizzes and interacting with other students from various backgrounds. The event was a fantastic learning opportunity and we cannot wait for the next Global Mixer which will take place in Spring 2018! Congrats to Phat Trang who won the Grand Prize, a sound bar! -Truc-

TREASURE BOX

In this column, we would like to start sharing our treasure box with different cultures and languages! First, let's learn how to greet in Vietnamese! Have you ever wondered how you could greet your Vietnamese friends in their language?

Hello!

Xin chào (Sin chow)

Goodbye!

Tạm biệt (Tam byet)

Thank you!

Cảm ơn bạn (Gahm un ban)

You're welcome!

Không có chi (Khom go zee)

MEET OUR NEW IE INSTRUCTOR!

Let us welcome Mr. Daniel Wood! He is a new instructor that teaches Intensive English (IE) classes. He is originally from California. He also used to live in Eugene, Oregon. Now, he lives here in this beautiful Washington state. Besides English, he is also fluent in Spanish as well Catalan! He graduated from University of California Santa Barbara with his Bachelor's Degree and finished his graduate school at University of Oregon. His two favorite hobbies are music and cooking. He loves Mexican and Japanese food, and he is open to try different food. His expectation is that the students will try their hardest and use the language to make connections with other people outside of class. He aspired to become an instructor because he wants to make his students feel welcomed here in the United States. If you see him, warmly greet him! -Afiq-

GLOBAL NIGHT INVITATION

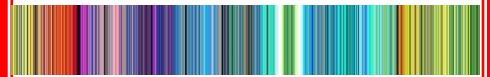

The Office of International Education cordially invites you to the Global Night 2017.

Date : Friday, 11/17/2017

Time : 6.00 - 8.00 p.m

Venue : Bremer Student Center

Come and join us as we celebrate the diversity of cultures within Olympic College! Enjoy the performances and fashion show!

HALLOWEEN PARTY

Collaborating with the Residence Hall, the International Club held a Halloween Party at the Residence Hall Community Room! There were definitely a lot of fun activities such as pumpkin carving contest, Chubby Bunny, as well as costume contest! The most fun part of the event is watching people stuffing the marshmallows into their mouth during Chubby Bunny. Congratulations to Daniel for winning the pumpkin carving contest and Queenie for winning the costume contest! -Afiq-
