We’re Moved!

We are happy to announce that the Office of International Education & Study Abroad has moved to a new location in the Bremer Student Center (BSC 117), where the Multicultural Center was in. We are happier than ever to welcome our students or guests to visit and have conversation here! Furthermore, our office and the Multicultural Center which also moved to a space where the Student Government of Olympic College used to be in are now located next to each other. It is our pleasure to have every OC student’s presence in our areas to make friends, share experiences, and cultures. Lastly, we are looking forward to seeing you at our new location! - Jayden

Bite of Seattle

On Friday July 20th, a group of international students went to an event called “Bite of Seattle” where you can try many kinds of food at Seattle Center. This festival is one of the biggest food festivals in Seattle and hosts 60 restaurants and stages for live performance. We had so much fun eating rare food and walking around together. –Aya

Treasure Box - Taiwan

Taiwan is a small country that surrounded by ocean and it is quite close to China. I’m really proud of the food in Taiwan. People who travel in Taiwan can’t miss the street food in night market such as stinky tofu, steamed buns, oyster omelet, and Taiwanese sausage with sticky rice. Those are really popular food in Taiwan but most people who are not Taiwanese always think they look and smell weird. I promise you that you won’t regret once you try them! Bubble milk tea is the most representative drink in Taiwan, and it is also my favorite beverage. It is the best to have a glass of bubble tea in the summer afternoon! - Tiffany
