A. Special Orders

- Shannon Relinquishes the Chair to Kyra-Marie Skibbe.
- Student High Achievement Welder's Club
 Jesse Lytle and the club will be starting with the Forest Parade. Students will get together and learn more about welding and have some fun. They will make sure to use the correct PPE. Everyone is a different levels in their education, so this creates a mentorship with other students with less experience. They would love to get with Bremerton Students to collaborate on projects and the Shelton students would like to use Bremerton's equipment. Jayne Barton Motions, Shannon Turner Seconds.

- Barner Garden Club

Bree, Megan and Andrew would like to engage OC students and the community with good gardening practices by creating an area for farm to table fruits and vegetables. Also, they would like to partner with Culinary and Child Develop departments to create more opportunities in learning. The Barner Learning Landscape is on the north end of campus and ties the campus to waterfront, and they would like create something to get the community more involved with this part of campus. As of this date, they have 29 people interested in their club. Matt Allen Motions, seconded by Joe Barboza.
