On Wednesday, October 31st, Our International Club and Resident Hall celebrated Halloween. The party was wonderful.

“I really had fun at the Halloween Party, I met a lot of friends, took many pictures with friends in amazing costumes. My most memorable part was the pumpkin carving, it was my first time and it was actually really interesting. I’m looking forward to joining the Halloween Party next year as well, it is my great chance to experience American culture as well as to make friends” - Jace

OC bookstore closed for a week and has re-opened under new management of Barnes & Noble College Booksellers LLC on Monday, Oct 29. The new bookstore is great and well organized. They offer new & improved services including a robust rental program, large digital e-text catalog, and a Price Match program. As for their produces, we can still enjoy the cup noodles as well as many new snacks and drinks!
Treasure Box: Tom Yum

Tom Yum is a really popular food in Thailand, you can choose any kind of meat for the soup, and people normally get the seafood Tom Yum. It has a unique taste, a little sweet, spicy and sour. The words "tom yum" originally came from two Thai words. Tom refers to the boiling process, and yam means Thai’s spicy and sour salad. In my opinion, I love Tom Yum. If you have the opportunity to visit Thailand, the Tom Yum there is the best, you must try it!! - Rattanawadii
