REQUIRED NARRATIVE DESCRIPTION FOR ALL PROJECTS

V. Abstract Describing Project and Purpose. Include a description of all experimental methods to be used and design and program activities. What is the expected outcome of the research and how will research findings be used? What measures or observations will be taken in the study? What are the procedures for data collection? If any questionnaires, tests or other instruments are to be used, include a brief description and a copy of such instrument.

VI. Protocol. Who will be the research subjects? How will they be solicited or contacted? Include a copy of recruitment letters or other recruitment materials with this document. How much time will be required of each subject? Describe procedures to which humans will be subjected, i.e., what will be done or to the research participants – use additional pages if necessary.

VII. Precautions. What steps will be taken to insure that each subject’s participation is voluntary? What, if any, inducements will be offered to the subjects for their participation?

VIII. Confidentiality of data. Describe the methods to be used to ensure the confidentiality of data obtained, including limited data access, plans for publication, and the disposition or destruction of data, etc.

IX. Consent. Attach a copy of all consent forms to be signed by the subjects and/or any statements to be read to the subject.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE PRINCIPAL INVESTIGATOR:

- Any additions or changes in procedures in the protocol will be submitted to the IRB for written approval prior to these changes being implemented (except in case of immediate hazards to the subject).
- Any problems connected with the use of human subjects once the project has begun must be communicated to the IRB Chair.
- The principal investigator (PI) is responsible for retaining informed consent documents for a period of 3-years after the project.
- The principal investigator is responsible for complying with federal, state, and local laws regarding the protection of human participants in research (see the DHHS Code of Federal Regulations, Title 45, Part 46 and the Belmont Report).
- The PI should include with the IRB submission a confirmation that the research has been approved by the unit administrator where the research will take place.
- If the IRB requires modifications in the project prior to approval, the IRB will notify the PI who can then make changes and resubmit application for final approval.
- The PI will provide a copy of the final research results to the chairperson of Olympic College’s IRB.

I certify that the protocol and method of obtaining informed consent as approved by the Institutional Review Board will be followed during the period covered by this research project. Any future changes to the research project will be submitted to the IRB for review and approval prior to implementation.
