B. Communication Items
1. Communication from the Public
   - No one from the public signed up to formerly address the Board of Trustees.
   - A presentation was made to Ms. Darlene Peters, former member of Olympic College’s Board of Trustees. Ms. Peter’s service to the College was recognized by President Mitchell, and, with the support of the Olympic College Foundation, a gift was presented to her to commemorate her time on the Board. Ms. Peter’s addressed the Board to thank them for allowing her to serve alongside them and reinforced her belief in the Mission, Vision, and Values of Olympic College.

2. Introduce New OC Staff
   - Dr. Jennifer Glasier, Dean of Enrollment Services, introduced Dan Schueler who is the new Director of Student Leadership and Success. Mr. Schueler will be working with the Student Government and overseeing student conduct issues for Olympic College.

Shannon Turner reported to the Board of Trustees on several topics included in their attached report, to include:
   - The SGOC has been very active in pursuing a Wellness Center. So far, 1500-2000 surveys have been collected, with the survey period ending the end of this week. The next step proposed would be a vote of the student population, which they anticipate occurring as early as next month. Mr. Turner hopes to have at least 1000 votes registered. Key aspects of the project were highlighted, and he explained how the proposed Wellness Center will benefit the students, the College, and the community at large.
   - Thanks were expressed to the WPEA, AHE, and Administration for agreeing to the proposed solution to the parking problem.
   - Mr. Turner expressed concern regarding the reduction in hours for the SGOC. Currently they are working between 18-20 hours per week, and are set to be reduced to 15 hours per week.
   - Olympic College's tribute to Martin Luther King, Jr. will be tomorrow, January 17th, 2018 from 12:00 PM – 2:00 PM.

4. Report of the Board
   - Trustee Harriette Bryant formerly welcomed new Board of Trustee members Shannon Childs and Cheryl Miller. Trustee Bryant also reported on several events she attended, including: the retirement party for Dr. Mitchell, the SGOC legislative breakfast, the CIC building preview, and the sea glass mosaic opening.
- Trustee Steve Warner also reported on his experience at the CIC building preview, noting the impressive study areas on north side of buildings’ upper floors.
- Trustee Jim Page attended the CIC building preview as well, and also commented on the upcoming events pertaining to the Board of Trustees that will be held in Olympia, WA next week, such as: the Association of College Trustees (ACT) winter conference, including the New Trustee Orientation and the Transforming Lives Award Dinner, and the legislative reception being hosted by the College.

5. Report of the President of the College

Dr. Mitchell reported to the Board of Trustees for his last time as President of Olympic College. His last official day will be February 15th, 2018. President Mitchell thanked everyone who came to his retirement celebration last month. In addition, Dr. Mitchell touched on the following topics:
- Olympic College has been accepted into Achieving the Dream network. It is a big decision whether or not to join, as there is a fee, but he feels it would be well worth it. With the blessing and direction of incoming President, Dr. Marty Cavalluzzi, the College has begun filling out the paperwork necessary to formally join.
- Enrollment is up slightly this quarter, at about 1.3%. The numbers will be closely monitored to determine whether the trend will continue.
- Today was first day of the new open parking model. So far it is working quite well. President Mitchell thanks both unions for their work towards an MOU and contributing to the solution.
- Olympic College will be hosting a reception for our service district’s state legislators on January 23rd, 2018 from 5:30 PM – 7:00 PM. Invitations have been sent out to the Senators and Representatives, as well as the President’s Cabinet, Union leadership, and SGOC President.
- Finally, President Mitchell would like to congratulate the Board of Trustees on a successful presidential search. Dr. Cavalluzzi is very highly thought of in the system, and he is a great choice as the next leader of Olympic College.

Deb Montez reported to the Board of Trustees on several topics:
- The flu season has taken big toll on the classified staff. With many people out ill, there is an increased stress on the staff remaining to get all the work done.
- Ms. Montez thanked the administration and both unions for coming up with a solution to the parking issue created by the demolition of the theater, Art, and Music buildings. She did lament the fact that this issue was not brought to their attention earlier.
- The attrition of classified staff has had an impact on remaining employees, who feel they have been asked to do more with less resources.
- Announcements: the Men’s and Women’s basketball teams will be hosting double-headers for the next four weeks. The games will be Wednesdays, with games starting at 5:00 PM & 7:00 PM. The Veteran’s Club will be providing food services at the game.

Ted Baldwin reported to the Board of Trustees on several topics:
- Mr. Baldwin introduced himself and provided a sketch of his career to the new Board of Trustees members.
- The main focus of his report was on two bills (HB 1237 and SB 5993) that are currently in the respective chambers of the Washington State legislature, which would allow for “equal
Mr. Baldwin provided his thoughts on the history of the law, how the faculty of community and technical colleges differ from the K12 or 4-year institutions, and the joint support from the Association of Higher Education (AHE0 and the American Federation of Teacher (AFT) they bills have.
