Why Western?

- Peninsula residents can complete their bachelor’s degree without relocating and experience the same high quality instruction and academic standards as on Western’s Bellingham campus
- Small campus and small class sizes create the ideal environment with increased student-faculty interaction
- Local academic advisers are genuinely concerned about the success of each student
- In-field study and undergraduate research opportunities make a positive impact on local communities
- Flexible course offerings help balance work, family and educational goals
- Dedicated services are available to active duty military and veterans

SEA Discovery Center
